Two Saloonists Promptly Fined by the Court

FOR KEEPING OPEN SUNDAY

Other Saloon Cases Dismissed for Want of Evidence—Notes From the Courts.

Bert Waters was fined $100 and $7.50 costs in the superior court yesterday morning for keeping his saloon open after hours. He pleaded guilty, and as it was his second offense, Judge Burlingame treated him the same as he does all the second offenders.

Alexander Douglas, who was convicted Saturday of keeping open on a holiday, was fined $50 and $9.45 costs. The fine was made small on a recommendation of the jury which tried him. Douglas pleaded guilty to another of his cases and secured a continuance over the term for another. He will be sentenced today on the charge to which he pleaded guilty.

Edward Boyland, who runs a saloon on Grandville avenue, was convicted by a jury for keeping open Sunday. He will be sentenced today.

The case against Frank S. Damakey on which a jury disagreed Saturday, was not heard.

John B. Hughes was made happy by a note from one of his cases. The prosecuting attorney said he did not deem the evidence strong enough to convict.

KILGENDER WILL FIGHT.

Notwithstanding His Confessions He Will Stand Trial.

John Kilgander, charged with indecent conduct had a partial hearing in police court yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Detective Kennedy was the first witness. He testified as to the way in which he caught Kilgander insulting women, and told of his confession. John J. Belknap was also sworn. He said he saw Detective Kennedy after he had arrested Kilgander and Mr. Kennedy told him what the arrest was for. The prisoner at that time confessed his guilt in the presence of Mr. Belknap. Captain Johnson also testified that Kilgander confessed the crime to him in the station after his arrest. Mr. Kilgander, a fine looking little woman, takes the arrest of her husband very much to heart. She declares she does not and cannot believe he is guilty. Mr. Kilgander has heretofore borne a good, quiet reputation. The case was adjourned until Wednesday.

COURTIGHT IS INSANE.

His Neighbor Was Arrested Because of His Delusion.

Peter Courtright was picked up by the police Sunday night and locked up for safe keeping. Yesterday morning he seemed to be ill and Dr. Kozema was called. He pronounced the disease pneumonia and had Mr. Courtright removed to the U. B. A. home. Mr. Courtright is a farmer residing in Ada and has been troubled with delusions for some time. Once he applied to the police for a warrant for W. B. Smith for keeping a little girl in his opera house against her will. He claimed Mr. Smith had kidnapped the child. Last week he applied for a capias for one of his neighbors, claiming the neighbor had stolen some home from him. He wanted $5,000 damages. The neighbor was arrested, but gave bonds for his appearance and was liberated. The case against him will probably be dismissed when called.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Fred Vankuren Accused of Raising a $5 Check to $50.

Deputy Sheriff Powers arrested Fred Vankuren late yesterday afternoon on a charge of forgery. The complainant is H. H. G. Post, of the Old National bank, who charges that Vankuren raised the amount of a $5 check to $50. The check purported to be signed by George D. Saxon. In his complaint Mr. Post says that the check was presented at the bank last July and was paid. Vankuren has been out of the city for some time and was picked up yesterday by the officer. He was taken to jail and will be arraigned today.

HE PLAYED A SHARP TRICK.

Dan H. Noel was given ninety days in jail in police court yesterday. Dan is the fellow who looked at a house he pretended he wanted to rent and told the owner he would take it. He went after the money to pay the rent in advance, but returned and asked for $150 to make change. The $150 was given to him and that was the last seen of him for some months.

COURT NOTES.

Prof. Gerrit Winemans, music teacher and organist in the Spring Street Holland Reformed church, began suit in the superior court yesterday against Mrs. Hunka Sprink for $3,000 damages. The professor claims that Mrs. Sprink has wronged him and injured his business by circulating reports injurious to his character. The particulars of his claim were suppressed, but the defendant was seen last night at her home, No. 198 Elm street. Mrs. Sprink said that the trouble arose over Winemans' haring become altogether too intimate with a girl.

Annie Ter Kurst is arrested again charged with larceny. She was acquitted about two weeks ago of a similar charge. The officers say they have a clear case against her this time. She was arraigned in police court yesterday and her examination was set for today.

The will of Jennie N. Lorimer of Grand Rapids township, was filed yesterday, giving her husband, John R. Lorimer, one-half her property and the other half to her son, A. B. Chapman. The value of the estate is not given.

Harry Bliven, a son of Henry M. Bliven, of the firm of Bliven & Allen, was arrested last night on complaint of his mother, Mrs. Eliza Bliven, who charges him with being disorderly at home.

Roger W. Butterfield petitioned the probate court yesterday to appoint the Michigan Trust company guardian of Frank W. Norris in place of James Blair, deceased.

Fred Van Keuren, who was arrested charged with forgery upon the Old National bank, furnished $1,000 bail last evening and was released.

May R. Bettler began suit for divorce in the superior court yesterday, from Joseph Bettler. She alleges cruelty and non-support.

In the case of Preston vs. Clark in Judge Grove's court yesterday, the plea was withdrawn and judgment for $49.74 entered.

John Sadtler, a recently discharged jail bird, was given ninety days from police court yesterday for the larceny of a satchel.

Nick Timmerman was arrested by Officer McConnell last night for coasting on Hastings street.

Dorsey Osaman and Charles Elliott, two stable men, were arrested for fighting last night.

Joel La Blanche was arrested last night for disorderly conduct.

John Sadtler, larceny; ninety days.

Water Tanks Frozen.

The water tanks on the C. & W. M. road, north of Baldwin, froze up yesterday, and engineers were bothered to get water. The northern trains were all late in consequence. When the tanks are frozen so solidly that they cannot be thawed out readily, the tank of the engine is filled with steam, and snow shoveled into it. That is not the quickest and easiest plan of filling a tank with water, but it goes in cold weather.
